

From the President

The South County Division kicked off the year with our dinner meeting at the Venice Yacht Club, where Chief Judge Owens issued a call to action, asking attorneys to become involved in the legislative process to advocate for appropriate court funding and judicial independence. Our special guest, Senior Judge Jack Schoonover, swore in Kerry Mack's daughter, Amanda Kaye Anderson; I always enjoy hearing the Oath of Admission to remind me why we do what we do.

Fall is in the air and it's already time to begin planning for the holidays; every year they seem to come faster! Hmm, not sure what that means. Last year our Division hosted a Holiday Party at the Robert L. Anderson Building, and invited all court personnel, clerks, bailiffs, probation officers, public defender and state attorney associates and staff as our guests. The event was very well attended and very much appreciated. This was made possible by sponsorships from the following attorneys and firms: A. Brent McPeck, P.A., Skip Berg, P.A., Donna-Lee Roden, Esq., Hall & Anderson, P.A., Klingbeil & Roberts, P.A., Michael D. Horlick, P.A., Muirhead, Gaylor, Steves & Waskom, LLP, W. Russell Snyder, P.A., Bechtold & Corbridge, P.A., Dean & Casella, P.A., Farr, Farr, Emerich, Hackett & Carr, P.A., Kanetsky, Moore & DeBoer, P.A., The Mack Law Firm, Chartered, Morris & Widman, P.A., and Reegler & Tornese, P.A. Judge Phyllis Galen offered in-kind contributions.

If you would like to help sponsor the Holiday Party scheduled for December 14, 2011, please send your $100 check to SCBA, P.O. Box 507, Sarasota, FL 34230.
