

The Sarasota County Bar Association

is pleased to present

Web/Telephonic Seminar a CLE teleconferencing program

Friday, February 19, 2010

12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m.

(Actual program time.)

“Maintaining a Trustworthy Trust Account”

Presenters:

Judith D. Equels, Director

Law Office Management Assistance Service, The Florida Bar and

Elizabeth Clark Tarbert, Esq.
Ethics Counsel for The Florida Bar

Issues to be addressed:

- ~ Complaints regarding trust account violations
- ~ Handling of client trust accounts
- ~ What to do if the trust account exceeds the FDIC maximum and the bank fails

One hour of ethics credit has been applied for.

Here's how it will work:

- Participants will access the program by dialing a toll-free number which will be provided upon registration. Dial-in time will be 11:40-11:55. Program will begin promptly at 12:00.
- WebCredenza operators will register each participant and track member participation, noting who accessed the program and for how long.
- WebCredenza operators will facilitate a professional introduction of each program, and if desired, a live and interactive question and answer period at the end of the presentation.

WebCredenza Registration Form

February 19, 2010

$20.00 p/person

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Email*: _____

Check No.: _____

A valid email address (free of security/spam filter) is required to participate in this program.

Please send one registration form per person

Deadline for Registration: February 12, 2010

Mail with payment to SCBA, PO Box 507, Sarasota FL 34230

